Terms and Conditions of Enrolment

Visa Requirements

Student must demonstrate competency in at least 65% of the total subjects attempted in each term. Student also needs to have satisfactory class participation to pass the subject.

Personal and Contact Details

Students have an obligation to notify AICL of a change of address while enrolled in a course with AICL as soon as practicable. Personal information about international students studying with AICL may be shared with the Australian Government and designated authorities, including the Tuition Assurance Scheme and the ESOS Assurance Fund Manager. This information includes personal and contact details, course enrolment details and changes, and the circumstance of any suspected breach of a student visa conditions.

Expulsion

The Institute reserves the right to expel students for any serious breaches of discipline.

Fees, Courses, and Timetables

The Institute reserves the right to vary its fees at any time. All courses and timetables are subject to change without prior notice.

Course Requirements and Payment Policy

- Prospective students must achieve 5.5 IELTS or equivalent to commence the principal course. Those who have not reached this level must study in AICL's General English Program until they are deemed proficient by the ELICOS Director of Studies to commence the principal course.
- Change of course incurs a $100 administration fee, except for ELICOS courses.
- Student enrolled in a packaged course (General English plus principal course):
 - Must complete the minimum of 6 months in the principal course. No refund will be given in the event of cancellation of the principal course.
 - Can have 65% of their unused English tuition fee transferred to the principal course in the event of early completion.
- If a student has nominated an agent, AICL will honor the agent until the completion of the enrolled course.
- Tuition fees are payable for 6 months period in advance except for Certificate II and ELICOS courses and where applicable.

Cancellation and Refund Policy

- All applications for refunds must be made in writing to the Accounts Manager.
- Refunds will be provided in accordance with ESOS ACT 2000
 - Within 14 days, if AICL is unable to run an advertised course due to provider defaulting, students can transfer to another AICL course or receive 100% refund.
 - Within 28 days after receiving a written claim from the student
 - Tuition fees, OSHC, and Material fee will be refunded in full if visa application is rejected provided that all documents from DIAC or Australian Embassy are supplied. Administration fee of A$250 applies upon refund application.
 - The course starts on the agreed starting day but the student does not start the course on that day, 50% of tuition fees and 70% of material fees will be refunded.
- No refund on tuition fees and material fees will be made to students who cancel the course after it has commenced. This includes students enrolled in a package course.
- Enrolment fee, airport pick up and accommodation placement fees are not refundable under any circumstances.
- Non-student visa tuition fees are strictly NON REFUNDABLE nor transferable under any circumstances.
- AICL will not authorize tuition fee transfer to any other institution or to other students.

7. This agreement and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws

8. AICL's dispute resolution processes do not circumscribe the student's right to pursue other legal remedies.

Grievance Procedure

Students are entitled to have a personal representative present at any stage during the grievance procedure. And if the student's problem cannot be resolved by AICL, students can seek external assistance from Dept of Fair Trading (Telephone 13 32 20). Please refer to the AICL website for further details.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

RPL is available on provision of verification at the beginning of a course. Students may ask for RPL if they believe that they already have the skills and knowledge that will be taught and assessed in a subject. (Please refer to the AICL website for further details.)

Condition to Defer Commencement of Course

Students are allowed to defer commencement of a course on medical grounds or other exceptional compassionate circumstances. Please refer to the AICL website for further details.
